DISCLOSURE STATEMENT REGARDING 504 LOAN PROCEDURES AND CHARGES

SBA 504 AND BANK FINANCING

The United States Small Business Administration's ("SBA") 504 Loan, made in partnership with CTCIC (an SBA certified development corporation) and your bank, is a "take-out" loan intended to provide permanent financing for up to 40% of your total project cost (plus certain eligible costs). Your bank will advance the entire amount to be financed under the SBA 504 Program (up to 90% of the total project cost) according to the terms of the bank's commitment letter PROVIDED you have accepted (signed) the SBA's written commitment to finance the project (called the Authorization for Debenture Guaranty) and the SBA 504 Loan Agreement with CTCIC. Upon completion of the project, the SBA 504 Loan will be ready to fund. Using the process created under the SBA 504 Program, CTCIC will issue a debenture (an instrument similar to a note or bond) to the SBA. CTCIC's debenture will be packaged with debentures issued by other certified development corporations from around the country and sold to private institutions (investors) as SBA guaranteed securities. This process occurs monthly. The proceeds from the sale of the CTCIC debenture to investors will be wire transferred to your bank to pay off (i.e. "take-out") the SBA 504 portion of the project financed by your bank. Proceeds will also be used to pay one time fees associated with the debenture sale transaction. The remaining balance (if any) and reimbursements for prepaid fees less CTCIC's expenses will be returned to you after funding.

INTEREST RATE ON NOTE

The interest rate for the SBA 504 Loan and the monthly payment amount will be set at the time of the debenture sale. Market conditions at the time of sale will determine the fixed interest rate for the debenture and Note.

EFFECTIVE INTEREST RATE

The effective interest rate to you, as reflected in your monthly 504 payment amount, includes the note interest rate plus the CSA fee; the CTCIC servicing fee, and the SBA guaranty fee (see below).

CENTRAL SERVICING AGENT (CSA):

The SBA has appointed Colson Services, Corp. as Central Servicing Agent (hereafter "CSA") to collect monthly payments from borrowers and transfer them to investors. For this service, CSA receives an annual servicing fee of .10% per annum (1/10 of 1%) on the unpaid balance of the loan. The CSA fee is included in your monthly payment amount.

CTCIC SERVICING FEE:

CTCIC will provide routine reporting and amendment services for the term of the Note. For these services, CTCIC will receive a servicing fee of between .625% (5/8 of 1%) and 1% per annum on the unpaid balance of the loan. The servicing fee is included in your monthly payment amount.

SBA ON-GOING GUARANTY FEE:

The SBA charges an on-going guaranty fee of .389% (.389 of 1%) per annum on the unpaid balance of the loan. The guaranty fee is included in your monthly payment amount.

The CSA fee, servicing fee and the guaranty fee will be recalculated on every five (5) year anniversary of the Note, based on the then existing principal balance due.

ONE-TIME CLOSING FEES INCLUDED IN THE 504 LOAN AMOUNT

The amount of the SBA 504 Loan is increased to cover certain one time fees incurred to pay the cost of processing the SBA 504 Loan and the cost of packaging and selling the CTCIC debenture to fund the SBA 504 Loan (see below).

CTCIC PROCESSING FEE:

CTCIC charges a one-time processing fee equal to 1.5% of the face amount of the debenture (i.e. the SBA 504 Loan amount). This fee is financed and included in your SBA 504 Loan amount. CTCIC collects a commitment fee equal to 1% of the loan (which includes the application fee) upon your signing (acceptance) of the Authorization for Debenture Guaranty and Loan Agreement. The commitment fee will be credited towards the total processing fee included in your SBA 504 Loan. The credited amount will be returned to you shortly after the funding of the SBA 504 Loan.

UNDERWRITING FEE:

The Underwriters provide financial advisory services in connection with the packaging of the 504 debentures, and build and maintain a secondary market. The Underwriters' fee is .40% (.40 of 1%) of the face amount of the debenture for 20 year loans and .375% (3/8 of 1%) of the face amount of the debenture for 10 year loans. This fee is financed and included in your SBA 504 Loan.

FUNDING FEE:

The funding fee covers certain costs associated with marketing and selling 504 debentures. The funding fee is .25% (1/4 of 1%) of the face amount of the debenture. This fee is financed and included in your SBA 504 Loan.

REFUND POLICY

The application fee paid to CTCIC is non-refundable unless the application is deemed ineligible for SBA 504 financing, in which case the full application fee will be refunded. The CTCIC Authorization fee which is 1% of the Net Debenture less the application fee (part of the CTCIC Processing Fee), is non-refundable upon submission to the SBA for issuance of the Authorization for Debenture Guaranty Agreement unless the SBA denies said submission. CTCIC will then refund the Authorization fee less the application fee and any out-of-pocket costs incurred.

ATTORNEY FEES

Closing counsel for CTCIC will charge a fee for completion of due diligence, document preparation and loan closing. The counsel fee is payable at the closing of the SBA 504 Loan (not at funding of the loan). Such fees normally do not exceed $3,200.00 (exclusive of fees and costs incurred by counsel such as search fees, recording fees etc.) except in unusual circumstances (including complex legal or project issues or lack of cooperation or diligence of your closing counsel), in which event CTCIC must approve the fees. If the debenture is not funded, you are responsible for paying CTCIC's counsel fees and costs incurred in connection with the SBA 504 Loan closing preparation. Up to $3,200.00 of CTCIC's attorney's closing fee may be added to the 504 Loan and reimbursed to you shortly after the funding of the SBA 504 Loan.

504 LOAN PAYMENTS

Loan payments will begin on the first full month after the funding of the SBA 504 Loan. The monthly payment will include repayment of principal and the payment of interest and fees. Payments are made by electronic fund transfers. At closing, you are required to authorize the CSA to make automatic withdrawals of the monthly loan payments from a designated account of the borrower.

LATE FEE

CTCIC charges a fee of 5% of the late payment or $100.00, whichever is greater, for each monthly SBA 504 Loan payment received by the CSA after the 15th day of the month.

ASSIGNMENT OF LIFE INSURANCE

A Collateral Assignment of a Life Insurance policy in the amount of the Gross Debenture may be required.

PREPAYMENT PREMIUM

You may not partially pre-pay an SBA 504 Loan. In the event you pre-pay an SBA 504 Loan in full during the first half of the term of the SBA 504 Loan, (i.e. years 1 through 10 for a loan with a repayment term of 20 years), a prepayment premium will be added to your payoff amount. The prepayment premium is calculated as a percentage of one year's note interest payment which does not include the CSA Fee, CTCIC Servicing Fee and SBA On-Going Guaranty Fee. The percentage decreases by 10% (20% for 10 year loans) each year during the first half of the term of the SBA 504 Loan.

Example:	20 Year Loan
Payment premium schedule:	Year 1- 100% of annual note interest
	Year 2- 90% of annual note interest
	Year 3- 80% of annual note interest
	Year 10- 10% of annual note interest
	Year 11 and beyond- no prepayment premium

Note: SBA 504 Loans are assumable by qualified small businesses. If the SBA 504 Loan is assumed; then no prepayment premium is incurred.

PREPAYMENT DETAIL

SBA 504 Loan prepayments require significant lead time and are different from typical loan prepayments. You are required to give CTCIC at least 45 days prior written notice of your intention to prepay the SBA 504 Loan. Prepayments occur on the third Thursday of the month and must be wired to the CSA by 9AM PST that day. Your prepayment amount will consist of: (a) all unpaid loan installments of principal and interest payments, servicing-agent fees, and SBA guarantee fees up to and including the date of the next semi-annual debenture payment date; (b) all CTCIC servicing fees that accrue before you prepay; (c) all late fees incurred before you prepay; (d) all expenses incurred by CTCIC for which you are responsible; (e) the balance owing on the Note as of the next semi-annual debenture payment date; and (f) any prepayment premium described above.

NO REPRESENTATION

By signing this Disclosure Statement you acknowledge that CTCIC has made no representations to you, that you have not relied upon any representations made by CTCIC regarding the SBA approval of your loan, and that you understand SBA can refuse to fund the loan if you

The undersigned acknowledges that CTCIC does not require the undersigned to follow advice given to the undersigned pursuant to this request and that following such advice is not a condition of the loan. Nothing in this paragraph, however, is intended to relieve the undersigned of the obligation to follow all conditions imposed by the terms of the SBA Loan and closing documents.

The financial information disclosed may include but is not limited to: the CTCIC application, business and personal federal income tax returns, business and personal financial statements, aging of accounts receivable & payable, and your business plan and projections.

U.S. SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

PART C

Statements Required by Law and Executive Order

Federal executive agencies, including the Small Business Administration (SBA), are required to withhold or limit financial assistance, to impose special conditions on approved loans, to provide special notices to applicants or borrowers and to require special reports and data from borrowers in order to comply with legislation passed by the Congress and Executive Orders issued by the President and by the provisions of various inter-agency agreements. SBA has issued regulations and procedures that implement these laws and executive orders, and they are contained in Parts 112, 113, 116, and 117, Title 13, Code of Federal Regulations Chapter 1, or Standard Operating Procedures.

Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552)

This law provides, with some exceptions, that SBA must supply information reflected in agency files and records to a person requesting it. Information about approved loans that will be automatically released includes, among other things, statistics on our loan programs (individual borrowers are not identified in the statistics) and other information such as the names of the borrowers (and their officers, directors, stockholders or partners), the collateral pledged to secure the loan, the amount of the loan, its purpose in general terms and the maturity. Proprietary data on a borrower would not routinely be made available to third parties. All requests under this Act are to be addressed to the nearest SBA office and be identified as a Freedom of Information request.

Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a)

A person can request to see or get copies of any personal information that SBA has in his or her file when that file is retrievable by individual identifiers such as name or social security numbers. Requests for information about another party may be denied unless SBA has the written permission of the individual to release the information to the requestor or unless the information is subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act.

Under the provisions of the Privacy Act, you are not required to provide your social security number. Failure to provide your social security number may not affect any right, benefit or privilege to which you are entitled. Disclosures of name and other personal identifiers are, however, required for a benefit, as SBA requires an individual seeking assistance from SBA to provide it with sufficient information for it to make a character determination. In determining whether an individual is of good character, SBA considers the person's integrity, candor, and disposition toward criminal actions. In making loans pursuant to section 7(a)(6) of the Small Business Act (the Act), 15 USC Section 636(a)(6), SBA is required to have reasonable assurance that the loan is of sound value and will be repaid or that it is in the best interest of the Government to grant the assistance requested. Additionally, SBA is specifically authorized to verify your criminal history, or lack thereof, pursuant to section 7(a)(1)(B), 15 USC Section 636(a)(1)(B). Further, for all forms of assistance, SBA is authorized to make all investigations necessary to ensure that a person has not engaged in acts that violate or will violate the Act or the Small Business Investment Act, 15 USC Sections 634(b)(11) and 687(b)(a). For these purposes, you are asked to voluntarily provide your social security number to assist SBA in making a character determination and to distinguish you from other individuals with the same or similar name or other personal identifier.

The Privacy Act authorizes SBA to make certain "routine uses" of information protected by that Act. One such routine use for SBA's loan system of records is that when this information indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or administrative in nature, SBA may refer it to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local or foreign, charged with responsibility for or otherwise involved in investigation, prosecution, enforcement or prevention of such violations. Another routine use of personal information is to assist in obtaining credit bureau reports, including business credit reports on the small business borrower and consumer credit reports and scores on the principals of the small business and guarantors on the loan for purposes of originating, servicing, and liquidating small business loans and for purposes of routine periodic loan portfolio management and lender monitoring. See, 69 F.R. 58598, 58617 (and as amended from time to time) for additional background and other routine uses.

Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 3401)

This is notice to you as required by the Right of Financial Privacy Act of 1978, of SBA's access rights to financial records held by financial institutions that are or have been doing business with you or your business, including any financial institutions participating in a loan or loan guarantee. The law provides that SBA shall have a right of access to your financial records in connection with its consideration or administration of assistance to you in the form of a Government loan or loan guaranty agreement. SBA is required to provide a certificate of its compliance with the Act to a financial institution in connection with its first request for access to your financial records, after which no further certification is required for subsequent accesses. The law also provides that SBA's access rights continue for the term of any approved loan or loan guaranty agreement. No further notice to you of SBA's access rights is required during the term of any such agreement.

The law also authorizes SBA to transfer to another Government authority any financial records included in an application for a loan, or concerning an approved loan or loan guarantee, as necessary to process, service or foreclose on a loan or loan guarantee or to collect on a defaulted loan or loan guarantee. No other transfer of your financial records to another Government authority will be permitted by SBA except as required or permitted by law.

Flood Disaster Protection Act (42 U.S.C. 4011)

Regulations have been issued by the Federal Insurance Administration (FIA) and by SBA implementing this Act and its amendments. These regulations prohibit SBA from making certain loans in an FIA designated floodplain unless Federal flood insurance is purchased as a condition of the loan. Failure to maintain the required level of flood insurance makes the applicant ineligible for any future financial assistance from SBA under any program, including disaster assistance.

Executive Orders -- Floodplain Management and Wetland Protection (42 F.R. 26951 and 42 F.R. 26961)

The SBA discourages any settlement in or development of a floodplain or a wetland. This statement is to notify all SBA loan applicants that such actions are hazardous to both life and property and should be avoided. The additional cost of flood preventive construction must be considered in addition to the possible loss of all assets and investments in future floods.

Occupational Safety and Health Act (15 U.S.C. 651 et seq.)

This legislation authorizes the Occupational Safety and Health Administration in the Department of Labor to require businesses to modify facilities and procedures to protect employees or pay penalty fees. In some instances, the business can be forced to cease operations or be prevented from starting operations in a new facility. Therefore, in some instances SBA may require additional information from an applicant to determine whether the business will be in compliance with OSHA regulations and allowed to operate its facility after the loan is approved and disbursed. Signing this form as borrower is a certification that the OSA requirements that apply to the borrower's business have been determined and the borrower to the best of its knowledge is in compliance.

Civil Rights Legislation

All businesses receiving SBA financial assistance must agree not to discriminate in any business practice, including employment practices and services to the public, on the basis of categories cited in 13 C.F.R., Parts 112, 113, and 117 of SBA Regulations. This includes making their goods and services available to handicapped clients or customers. All business borrowers will be required to display the "Equal Employment Opportunity Poster" prescribed by SBA.

Equal Credit Opportunity Act (15 U.S.C. 1691)

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age (provided that the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The Federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is the Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, D.C. 20580.

Executive Order 11738 -- Environmental Protection (38 C.F.R. 25161)

The Executive Order charges SBA with administering its loan programs in a manner that will result in effective enforcement of the Clean Air Act, the Federal Water Pollution Act and other environmental protection legislation. SBA must, therefore, impose conditions on some loans. By acknowledging receipt of this form and presenting the application, the principals of all small businesses borrowing $100,000 or more in direct funds stipulate to the following:

1. That any facility used, or to be used, by the subject firm is not cited on the EPA list of Violating Facilities.
2. That subject firm will comply with all the requirements of Section 114 of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7414) and Section 308 of the Water Act (33 U.S.C 1318) relating to inspection, monitoring, entry, reports and information, as well as all other requirements specified in Section 114 and Section 308 of the respective Acts, and all regulations and guidelines issued thereunder.
3. That subject firm will notify SBA of the receipt of any communication from the Director of the Environmental Protection Agency indicating that a facility utilized, or to be utilized, by subject firm is under consideration to be listed on the EPA List of Violating Facilities.

Debt Collection Act of 1982 Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (31 U.S.C. 3701 et seq. and other titles)

These laws require SBA to aggressively collect any loan payments which become delinquent. SBA must obtain your taxpayer identification number when you apply for a loan. If you receive a loan, and do not make payments as they come due, SBA may take one or more of the following actions:

- Report the status of your loan(s) to credit bureaus
- Hire a collection agency to collect your loan
- Offset your income tax refund or other amounts due to you from the Federal Government
- Suspend or debar you or your company from doing business with the Federal Government
- Refer your loan to the Department of Justice or other attorneys for litigation
- Foreclose on collateral or take other action permitted in the loan instruments.

Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (Pub. L. 99-603)

If you are an alien who was in this country illegally since before January 1, 1982, you may have been granted lawful temporary resident status by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service pursuant to the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (Pub. L. 99-603). For five years from the date you are granted such status, you are not eligible for financial assistance from the SBA in the form of a loan or guaranty under section 7(a) of the Small Business Act unless you are disabled or a Cuban or Haitian entrant. When you sign this document, you are making the certification that the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 does not apply to you, or if it does apply, more than five years have elapsed since you have been granted lawful temporary resident status pursuant to such 1986 legislation.

Lead-Based Paint Poisoning Prevention Act (42 U.S.C. 4821 et seq.)

Borrowers using SBA funds for the construction or rehabilitation of a residential structure are prohibited from using lead-based paint (as defined in SBA regulations) on all interior surfaces, whether accessible or not, and exterior surfaces, such as stairs, decks, porches, railings, windows and doors, which are readily accessible to children under 7 years of age. A "residential structure" is any home, apartment, hotel, motel, orphanage, boarding school, dormitory, day care center, extended care facility, college or other school housing, hospital, group practice or community facility and all other residential or institutional structures where persons reside.

I understand that I need not pay anybody to deal with SBA. I also understand that a Certified Development Company may charge the applicant a percentage of the loan proceeds as set forth in SBA regulations as a fee for preparing and processing the loan applications. I agree to pay for or reimburse SBA for the cost of any surveys, title or mortgage examinations, appraisals, etc., performed by non-SBA personnel provided that I have given my consent.

Certification as to Non-relocation

Regulations issued by SBA prohibit the making of loans that will result in significant increase of unemployment in any area of the country (13 CFR 120.881(a)). In the event that proceeds from this loan are used to provide a facility for relocation of the beneficiary small business concern (including any affiliate, subsidiary or other business entity under direct, indirect or common control), the undersigned certifies that such relocation will not significantly increase unemployment in the area of the original location.

Executive Order 12549, Debarment and Suspension (13 CFR 145)

1. The prospective lower tier participant certifies, by submission of this loan application, that neither it nor its principals are presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from participation in this transaction by any Federal department or agency.
2. Where the prospective lower tier participant is unable to certify to any of the statements in this certification, such prospective participants shall attach an explanation to the loan application.

Conflicts of Interest

No overlapping relationship exists between the small business concern, including its associates, and the CDC, including its associates, or any other lender providing financing for the project that could create an appearance of a conflict of interest as defined in 13 CFR 120.140 or violate 13 CFR 120.851. No such relationships existed within six months of this application or will be permitted to exist while assistance is outstanding.

NOTICES REQUIRED BY LAW

The following is a brief summary of the laws applicable to this solicitation of information.

Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35)

SBA is collecting the information on this form to make a character and credit eligibility decision to fund or deny you a loan or other form of assistance. The information is required in order for SBA to have sufficient information to determine whether to provide you with the requested assistance. The information collected may be checked against criminal history indices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. § 552a)

Any person can request to see or get copies of any personal information that SBA has in his or her file, when that file is retrieved by individual identifiers, such as name or social security numbers. Requests for information about another party may be denied unless SBA has the written permission of the individual to release the information to the requestor or unless the information is subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act.

Under the provisions of the Privacy Act, you are not required to provide your social security number. Failure to provide your social security number may not affect any right, benefit or privilege to which you are entitled. Disclosures of name and other personal identifiers are, however, required for a benefit, as SBA requires an individual seeking assistance from SBA to provide it with sufficient information for it to make a character determination. In determining whether an individual is of good character, SBA considers the person's integrity, candor, and disposition toward criminal actions. In making loans pursuant to section 7(a)(6) the Small Business Act (the Act), 15 USC § 636 (a)(6), SBA is required to have reasonable assurance that the loan is of sound value and will be repaid or that it is in the best interest of the Government to grant the assistance requested. Additionally, SBA is specifically authorized to verify your criminal history, or lack thereof, pursuant to section 7(a)(1)(B), 15 USC § 636(a)(1)(B). Further, for all forms of assistance, SBA is authorized to make all investigations necessary to ensure that a person has not engaged in acts that violate or will violate the Act or the Small Business Investment Act, 15 USC §§ 634(b)(11) and 687b(a). For these purposes, you are asked to voluntarily provide your social security number to assist SBA in making a character determination and to distinguish you from other individuals with the same or similar name or other personal identifier.

When the information collected on this form indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or administrative in nature, SBA may refer it to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local, or foreign, charged with responsibility for or otherwise involved in investigation, prosecution, enforcement or prevention of such violations. See 74 Fed. Reg. 14890 (2009) for other published routine uses.
